

SAPPONY RIVER FESTIVAL

Come Down To The River
for

Food, Fun and Culture

June 5, 2010 from 9:00 am to 4:00 pm
Staunton River Battlefield State Park
$6.00 a person ($5.00 seniors)

Dance & Drum Demonstrations

Demonstrations of traditional Native dance and drumming.

Native Crafts & Stories

Try your hand at making a dream catcher (children ages 5 to 12). Learn about the local Sappony Tribal history and hear stories about life in High Plains.

Celebrate our Earth with Plantings - Past & Present

Learn the "Three Sisters" story of traditional Native planting from the Sappony Tribe. Learn about re-seeding our forests from the Department of Conservation and Recreation.

Birds of Prey Exhibition

See birds of prey and enjoy presentations about the birds and how you can protect them by the Virginia Raptor Conservancy.

Canoe the River

Enjoy our water resources by taking a canoe ride while learning about the Sappony (Staunton) River and its contribution to trade, transportation & life ways of yesterday and today. Canoes launched from Watkins Bridge. $15.00 per person - 6 canoes will accommodate up to 5 people each - "I Canoeed the Sappony River" T-shirts for each participant

Archaeology Dig Site

Discussions will be held throughout the day on the recent activities and finds of the on-site archaeology dig.

www.SapponyRiverFest.org ☎ 434-585-3352